HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

YOUNG COUNTY, TEXAS.

En. SOUTH KENTUCKIAN:

Maybe your readers would like to hear from North West Texas. While the wind was blowing cool and pleasant from the South I walked up on the mountain where I could see

4 miles up the clear fork, and down the same stream and such a change

there is in the looks, it is wonderful.

Indeed. One month ago all vegetation was dead like a corpse stripped of life; to-day the scenery is as beautiful as a lovely maiden being led to the altar. The trees have put forth their leaves, the grass is green and thousands of all colors of blossoms cover the prairies.

The south that was, is gone, and those that had energy and grit to fight it out and stay are going to reap a bountiful crop this year. A great many weak kneed ones left last year and it was feared that a great deal of land would lay idle but the farmers have gone to work with a will and nearly all the land that has been cultivated will be planted this year. I think the drought will be a blessing in the end. It has driven the large herds of cattle further west and thus with a few head of stock can have better range. It is strange that Texas has thousands and thousands of acres of rich land to sell at $2 to $3 per acre on 40 years time at 5 per cent. interest to anyone wanting a home and any one year thousands in each old state will give more than that price in rent where they work from year to year and grow poorer every year. A drought in Texas does not hurt nor make any one live any harder than the masses have to live every year of their lives in the old states. I can keep more stock on 3 acres of millet here through winter than can be kept on 40 acres in that State or Kansas or Illinois. I have no land to sell neither am I agent for any immigration society, but I have lived in Kentucky, Illinois and Kansas and I know how routers and men with poor land have to work to make ends meet. I don't say for any one with a good farm who is doing well to sell out, but I do say for all that have no farms and have a will to work and become a free man, to come to Texas while land can be had so cheap. Improved land in this county is selling at from $10 to $20 per acre.

When I came here 7 years ago I could buy at one dollar per acre for range land and from $3 to $5 for improved.

We have the best of schools in every community.

Well Mr. Editor I would like for you to be here at one of our fish fries and help pick the meat from one of Clear Fork's cats that weigh 40 or 50 lbs, and see how we Texans enjoy ourselves under the shade. I believe you would think Pond River fish would do for bait for our fish and nothing more. Two drags with seine this spring caught 500 pounds.

Crop is late here, spring but the land is in fine condition. There will be a large crop of cotton planted this year, wheat will be light where it was poorly put in, in part of the state where the drought was last year, rains not coming till April 15.

G. H. LONG.

CROFTON.

CROFTON, KY., May 15.—Dr. Duncannon, of Nashville, Tenn., came down Thursday and operated on

Joe P. Bourland who went down there to consult him last Monday.

He has recovered from the shock and is doing well.

Geo. McClellan, of whom we made mention in our last, was tried last night for drunkenness and concealed weapons and was fined seven dollars in the former and twenty-five dollars and ten days in the county jail in the latter.

J. J. Allen, C. C. C. and Ed Higgins

M. C., arrested two of the Cooley boys

Wednesday night charged with horse stealing and house breaking. They were taken to Princeton, Ky., where the grand jury will have the case

Tuesday. The Sheriff of Hopkins,

C. C., telegraphed J. J. Allen yesterday to arrest Irvin Cooley, Jr., and hold him until he came which was done by Ed Higgins four miles west of here yesterday morning and he was brought to this place and the Sheriff wired. He came on the 4:35 passenger and took charge of him. We understand he is charged with shooting with intent to kill. Horse thieves and other violators of the law will learn that Crofton will not be a good summer resort for them.

Thos. Stuart has been confined to his bed for several days of roses.

Miss Mary Rogers, of your city, came down to-day to visit friends.

Malbert Long came home Saturday to visit his parents. (?)

J. E. Day is visiting his brother, C.

M. Day.

The Indian doctor who has been spending several weeks in your city will be with us all next week and will give free advice each night. If any one should die in this community it will be of two many doctors and not the opposite, we counted nine in our town last Thursday. Think of it, a town of 300 inhabitants.

A crippled man has a fee magic lantern show here last night and picked up a few loose nickels.

One of Ad. Robinson's children was accidentally shot in the foot yesterday by a shot gun while on the door.

Spring chickens are plentiful on the market now at $2.00 per doz, but they cry so for the mother that hovered them that the buyer has not the heart to kill them until he has fed them for some time.

Joe Cranley, our polite barber, is doing good work and his shop is very neat.

Buck.

Johnny's Composition on Medicine.

"There is two kinds of medicine besides the kind you Rub on and the first kind is the Soft Kind which you take with a spoon while a man holds your head and you kick and Rattle some because it Tastes so and the other kind is the Hard kind which is called Pills and it is the hardest of the whole because it is so Hard to go Down but it does not make any difference which kind you Take when you get it took you wish you Had not for it makes you a Row in your Stomach and Routs Around."

Two members of the dignified Illinois senate engaged in a plucky, old-fashion "knock-down argument" during the session. One of the puglistic law farmers got a corker in the eye.

THE AGENT'S REVENGE.

Senator Cullom Reminded of the Inter-State Bill.

Washington special to the New York World: A few days ago Senator Cullom's coachman appeared at a local railroad freight office with the Senator's handsome turn-out, consisting of a fine pair of bay horses and an elegant landau.

"Senator Cullom wishes to ship his horses and carriage a special car to Chicago," said the driver.

"Certainly," said the polite agent, and the turn-out was at once put aboard of a large car.

The coachman having satisfied himself that everything was all right, turned to leave the station, when he was stopped by the same polite official.

"You have forgotten something,"

said the railway man, at the same time handing the driver a bill for $200 for transportation.

"But the Senator always has his horses carried for nothing," protested the coachman.

"The Senator used to," replied the agent, with an affable smile, "but that was before the passage of the Inter-State commerce law. I have orders now to collect full freight from everybody, and can make no exception in favor of Senator Cullom."

The exact language used by the Illinois statesman when he received the bill is not reported, but it is said to have been exceedingly picturesque.

He at once gave orders to have the turnout unloaded, and he has offered the same for sale at a bargain.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,
S. B. BUCKNER,
of Hart County.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
J. W. BRYAN,
of Kenton County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
P. W. HARDIN,
of Mercer County.

FOR AUDITOR,
FAYETTE HEWITT,
of Hardin County.

FOR TREASURER,
JAS. W. TATE,
of Woodford County.

FOR SUP. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
JOS. DESHA PICKETT,
of Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE,
THOMAS H. CORBETT,
of McCracken County.

FOR STATE SENATOR, SIXTH DISTRICT, ZENO F. YOUNG,
of Hopkins County.

Dr. Norman is the Democratic nominee for the Legislature in Henderson.

The New York Herald has declared for the ticket Cleveland and Watson in 1888. Euphonious enough, but too heterogeneous.

The great national drill began at Washington yesterday. The Louisville, Bowling Green and other Kentucky companies have gone.

R. M. Ward has been nominated for the Legislature by the Democrats of McLean. Geo. S. Priest was nominated for County Clerk.

The Republicans of Muhlenberg county have nominated Caleb W. Clesney for the Legislature. R. Y. Thomas is the Democratic nominee.

The dead-lock in the Florida Legislature was broken last week by the election of Samuel H. Pasco as United States Senator. He is, of course, a Democrat.

Rev. Jos. Botts and Allen McDonald went out to hunt wild turkeys near Winfield, Tenn., Friday. They separated and hearing turkey calls Mr. Botts saw a dark object through the brush and fired at it, killing his friend.

Gen. Buckner was named for Gen. Simon Bolivar, who figured as the "Washington of South America," and who was honored by having his name given to one of the South American Republics, in the third decade of the present century.

Jno. S. Rhea has appeared before the Todd county grand jury and secured the indictment of Hite Small for sending him a challenge to fight a duel and against Seymour Perkins for bearing it. The penalty is fine and imprisonment. Small now lives in Alabama.

The trial of Bill Patterson, the second of the Jennie Bowman murderers, ended at Louisville Friday with a verdict of guilty and a sentence of death. Patterson attempted to prove an alibi but failed. He will take an appeal and will probably have a longer lease on life than Turner, who will hang July 1.

Col. Chas. B. Reynolds, formerly a Methodist minister, has been found guilty of blaspheming at Morristown, N. J., and his punishment fixed at 12 months imprisonment and a fine of $200. His offense was the distribution of a pamphlet denying the infallibility of the Bible. He was defended by Col. R. G. Ingersoll.

Col. Bradley challenged Gen. Buckner for a joint discussion, to which the latter replied, stating that he would begin the canvass June 8th or 10th. Col. Bradley before receiving the reply published a list of appointments in the Cincinnati Enquirer inviting Gen. Buckner to meet him, beginning May 23rd; and now Buckner has written him referring the matter to the State Committee and declining to arrange appointments with a man who opens his canvass with discourtesy and a disregard of the proprieties that should govern a discussion between gentlemen. Gen. Buckner will fill all appointments made for him by the committee.

It does not speak well for the intelligence and good sense of the people of Henderson, that a mob should be permitted to hang in effigy the Governor of the State upon the main thoroughfare of the city. Dummies of both Gov. Knott and Hon. I. A. Spaulding were swung up and permitted to hang several hours, because of the relieve of the negro McElroy. This proceeding will not injure the standing of these gentlemen. All well-informed people in the State know that Gov. Knott has advocated the rigid enforcement of the criminal laws of the State, and violators of the law have found no favor at his hands. He has granted few pardons, remitted no fines and interfered with the due process of law in very few instances. He granted a respite of a few weeks in McElroy's case, for reasons which he deemed good and satisfactory, and the people of Henderson should at least accord him honesty of purpose, especially when his course was approved by such a man as Ignatius Spaulding, who was familiar with all the facts in the case.

The Kentuckian's Scoop.

The enterprise of the KENTUCKIAN in giving its report of the unweaving ceremonies, which is without a parallel in the history of journalism in the smaller cities of Kentucky, has been complimented so extravagantly that the publishers cannot refrain from feeling a little exultation over their achievement. For the benefit of the uninitiated we will explain how it was done. By a courtesy that was extended to all papers desiring to avail themselves of it we were supplied with advance proofs of the speeches, and this matter, together with all descriptive portions of our article, was put in type in advance. The editor went in advance to the cemetery and before and during the proceedings wrote up such notes and incidents as the events of the day suggested, which were sent by a courier and were in type by the time the exercises were concluded. The finishing touches to the account were quickly set up, the proof read and the forms made up in an incredibly short space of time. The engine was "fired up" and ready in 40 minutes after the crowd left the cemetery we were printing off papers at the rate of 1200 an hour. It was shortly after 6 o'clock when the carriers were sent out with the papers, but these were sold so rapidly that the folders could not supply the carriers fast enough to meet the demands of those leaving on the special trains. One of our carriers, with the enterprise characteristic of the KENTUCKIAN's entire force, boarded the last car of a moving train at 9th street, sold 25 papers and jumped off at 7th, at the risk of breaking a limb. The KENTUCKIAN of Friday was issued at 6 o'clock Thursday and gave a ten-column report, correct in detail and free from typographical errors, sixteen hours ahead of the city dailies and local contemporaries. This coup de main not only enabled us to "scoop" every other paper circulated in the city, but proved to be as profitable as it was enterprising, and at the same time gave our advertisers the advantage of a large extra circulation amongst the strangers in the city.

Spring Humors.

If you are afflicted with eruptions of the skin, pimples, blotches, or slight sores that will not heal, your blood is bad and full of impurities. You need Dr. Jackson's Root and Herb Cordial, which is an unfailing remedy for any disease of the blood or system. Do you feel weak, debilitated, all tired out, feverish, or in poor spirits, use Dr. Jackson's Cordial, it will enrich your blood, strengthen your system and restore to you the natural buoyancy of your spirits. Sold by J. R. Armistead, Hopkinsville, Ky., at $1.00 per bottle.

THE COUNTY JUDGESHIP.

The Court of Last Resort Decides Winfree Elected.

As briefly announced Friday, the Court of Appeals decided the Winfree-Anderson contest last Thursday in Judge Winfree's favor, by affirming the decision of the Circuit Court. This is the court of last resort and settles the matter finally, Winfree's majority being 3 votes.

The decision carries with it a judgment for the back salary and perquisites of the office since September, amounting to about $900, together with ten per cent additional under the superadeas bond. The costs of both sides will of course have to be paid by the losing candidate. The final figures as corrected by Judge Grace were Winfree 3047, Anderson 3044. While Judge Winfree was the Democratic nominee and his opponent the Republican nominee, he received the votes of many Republicans white and colored and he was re-elected by the votes of these. During his occupancy of the office, Judge Anderson's deportment has been such as to win for him the respect of his political opponents and he has made an attentive, conscientious officer. While we rejoice over the election of Judge Winfree, we cannot find it in our heart to exult over his defeated opponent whom we entertain none but feelings of the kindest regard.

If a new trial is not granted, the mandate of the Court of Appeals will be issued within 30 judicial days from the affirmance, which will be June 23. The mandate being issued the Governor will issue a commission to Winfree and upon its receipt he will take the oath and assume the office. It is likely that Judge Anderson will vacate at once, if his attorneys decide not to try to obtain a rehearing.

Circle Meeting

To be held at Salem, May 28 and 29, 1887. The following subjects will be discussed:

1. Is there any just reasons for discriminating against Foreign Missions Rev. J. G. Kendall.
2. Special reasons for vigorously prosecuting the Chinese Mission, J. D. Clardy.
3. What portions of our county present the best prospects for successful Mission work? Rev. S. P. Forgy.
4. Advantages of training the young in Mission work, Rev. J. T. Barrow.
5. Systematic Benevolence, and the best way to attain it, Dr. Harris.
6. Elements of Success in Sunday School work, Lyman McComb.
7. Effects of the example of church members, J. F. Garrett.
8. Map Lecture, Dr. B. F. Eager.
9. J. D. Clardy, Vice President.

Newstead, May 11th, 1887.

Jas. Boales, of Crofton, died at Hot Springs, Ark., Sunday.

A BRACE OF KILLINGS.

Chas. Kimbrough Kills Henry Garnett at Herndon, and Henry Perkins Slays a Negro Named Cross Near Barker's Mill.

A shooting occurred at Herndon about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, in which Henry Garnett, who was recently released from serving a term in the penitentiary, was killed by Chas. Kimbrough, col. Garnett had a pistol drawn and was cursing and threatening Kimbrough, when the latter backed into a corner jerked out his pistol and shot Garnett through the breast, near the heart. Garnett lived but a few moments. Esq. Major held an inquest and the verdict of the jury was "justifiable homicide." Kimbrough surrendered and was tried yesterday.

Garnett lived at Pack Giles' and Kimbrough at Jesse Evans'. ANOTHER THE SAME DAY. In a quarrel at a house on the road between Trenton and Barker's Mill, in this county, at 1 o'clock, P. M., Sunday, Henry Perkins shot out the brains of another negro named Cross. No further particulars learned. Perkins has skipped out and a reward of $50 has been offered for his capture. He is a bad character and killed a negro named Jarhey Waller, at Trenton, two years ago, for which he was never arrested.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.

as Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do are ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury and is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure that you get the genuine, it is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by G. Cheney & Co.

Sold by Druggist, price 75c. per bottle.

A Pleasant Picnic.

The Sunday school picnic given at Little River church last Saturday was an affair of unusual pleasantness and decidedly a success. Early in the day the crowd began to gather and when the hour arrived to commence services about four hundred people were present.

Addressees were made by the pastor, Rev. A. W. Meacham; Rev. W. B. Walker, Dr. J. D. Clardy and Prof. J. W. Rust before and after noon.

At 12 o'clock an elegant dinner was spread, consisting of everything good to eat, and an invitation extended to all to come and partake thereof, which was readily accepted. If anyone failed to get enough to eat it was his or her fault, as there were enough provisions spread to have fed three times the number present.

The church is in a very prosperous condition and has about one hundred and twenty-five members. Rev. A. W. Meacham is the pastor, having filled the position faithfully for twenty-two years. The building is a very old one, but has recently undergone some much needed repairs and bids fair to stand the storms of many winters yet. It has also been enclosed recently by a neat plank fence. This church has an excellent organ, organist and choir and discourses fine music. Situated as it is, in a lovely shady grove and surrounded by so many hospitable people who do everything in their power to make one happy, it is not a wonder that a picnic, such as Saturday's, proved so enjoyable an affair to the large number present.

Re-Union Postponed.

Ed. SOUTH KENTUCKIAN: I regret to announce that it is thought best by some of our kin that we postpone our Annual Family Re-union until next year. We do this because we wish no dissenting voice in the kin, but every one elected to have a good time by acclamation. So the Forts, Killebrews, Whitfields, Johnscus, Radfords and others will govern themselves accordingly. With many thanks for your uniform kindness, Yours Truly, V. M. METCALFE.

UNVEILING NOTES.

The generally expressed opinion is that Jim Breathitt made the best speech of the day.

Mrs. M. E. Rogers had the red, white and blue nicely displayed in her show window.

Young & Banks, the 9th St. barbers, came to the front with one of the nicest displays to be seen last Thursday.

Dr. Armistead's decoration on last Thursday was one of the finest in the city and attracted a great deal of attention.

F. Schmitt's new delivery wagon, decorated by Henry Blumenstein, was the handsomest vehicle in the parade. It was filled with young ladies all dressed in white.

The old time muskets, remnants of the war, used in our decorations Thursday, were kindly furnished us by Mess. John and Gus Young, the 6th St. hardware dealers.

The Hop of Thursday night was a brilliant ending to the unveiling ceremonies and festivities. Nearly 100 couples were present, including many young ladies from other cities and States. The music was furnished by Eichhorn's Band, of Louisville.

On Saturday afternoon some of the young men of the city who were still hilariously inclined, sent the following telegram: "Mr. Latham, we are still unveiling, when shall we cease?" The answer came promptly, "Stop by no means until Monday morning, Jao. C. Latham."

Rev. Dr. Deems preached at the Cemetery Sunday morning and at the Opera House in the evening. Large crowds were present to hear both discourses. Dr. Deems fully sustained the reputation his unveiling speech made for him and confirmed the universal opinion that he is a man of great profundity, extraordinary mental strength and rare fluency and eloquence on the stand or in the pulpit. But few of the churches held services and Dr. Deems' congregations were made up of all denominations in the city.

The reception at Mrs. Latham's Thursday evening was one of the pleasantest affairs of the kind ever given in the city. A great many distinguished men were present and took part in the pleasures of the occasion. The supper was a very sumptuous and elegant in every respect. The large lawn surrounding the house was profusely decorated and lighted with Chinese lanterns. Mrs. Latham was assisted in doing the honors by Mrs. J. C. Latham, Mrs. C. M. Latham, Miss Rebecca Latham and Miss Connie White.

Mr. J. D. Carmody, the Evansville florist, who was the designer of the tribute from Evansville and who put it in place at the cemetery, was taken sick with something like sunstroke about one o'clock Thursday and stopped in at Mr. T. M. Edmundson's and asked to be allowed to lie down. Mr. and Mrs. Edmundson extended the hospitalities of their home to him and showed him every kindness and attention, although he was a total stranger to them. He recovered in time to leave for home on the 7 P. M. special. On the following day Mrs. Edmundson received $25 worth of fine flowers by express, with the compliments of Mr. Carmody, accompanied by a letter thanking her for favors extended to him.

DEcoration of Capt. Cook's Grave.
By for the handsome decoration, of any individual grave in the cemetery last Thursday was that of Capt. Cook, which was prepared by the Latham Guards, whom he so ably commanded up to the time of his death. The decoration consisted of an arch of evergreens entirely over his grave, from the center of which hung his sword and helmet. At the foot was a circle of evergreens in which his silver cup was hung, presented to him by the company. At the head of his grave was a stack of arms and the entire grave was surrounded by potted flowers. Sentinels were posted at the grave, and in the afternoon a salute was fired. The company has been highly complimented for the decorations and the attention shown their late captain's grave.

One of the handsomest decorated buildings in the city on the 19th was that of Dr. H. M. Sherman's National Dispensary. Over the entrance of each door was a beautiful shield of the stars and stripes, with the inscription across the center "Welcome." A large and handsome flag stretched from his building to that opposite, with the inscription, "Peace and good will to all men." Flags of several nations hung from all the windows above. The entire building was draped with bunting. One hundred and twenty-five visitors were royally entertained by the Doctor, among them dignitaries of the different states. His handsome suite of rooms were occupied with tables filled with all the delicacies of the season, which his bill of fare for the occasion called for. Dr. Sherman will always be remembered by his numerous friends and admirers of Hopkinsville and from abroad for the elegant repast and reception given by him.

do not find all their investments golden, by any means. But an investment in Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is certain to prove a good one. It cures cough, consumption, bronchitis, sick-headache, skin diseases, dyspepsia, costiveness, scrofulous diseases, chills and fever, and dumb ague. It reaches the blood, and through it the whole system. Agreeable to take, permanent in its results. By druggists.

Henry Childress, who cut his foot very bad some time ago, is able to walk again.

A RABID CANINE.

A Mad-dog Killed Sunday Morning.

Sunday morning Mr. Jas. F. Pyle, living at the corner of 11th and Virginia streets, was awakened by the fierce snarls of a mad-dog on his back porch. Mr. Pyle looked out and saw the dog lying on its back, frothing at the mouth and snapping and snarling at a fearful rate. Mr. Pyle shot at it twice with a pistol but failed to kill it and while it was on his front porch he slipped out and called in the help of Forbes' watchman and the animal was shot and killed. It was a small woolly fleecy and was undoubtedly in the worst stages of hydrophobia. It is not known whether it had bitten any other dogs or not, but it would be well for our people to look out for mad-dogs during the next few weeks.

Dropped Dead.
Jane Rowland, one of the colored cooks at the Phoenix Hotel, fell dead on the street Thursday night as she was going home from her day's duties. She had worked all day and appeared to be as well as usual when she left the hotel. She was found dead about 10 o'clock. Heart disease is supposed to be the cause.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly For June.
Warm days tell us of approaching Summer, and an article that takes us to the woods and mountains has an attraction. Mr. Charles Bacon allures us all to follow him in his sketch, "Camp-Life Among the White Hills," in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for June. Miss Lily Higgin tells something about the "Jubilee of Queen Victoria." Mr. O. W. Riggs, delving in the custom house and warehouses writes a chapter which will be new and interesting to many. "The Coffee Trade of New York" which will give vent to a genuine cup of Mocha. "Percy Bysshe Shelley," one of the most marked literary figures of our century, is sketched in his whole career as he has not hitherto been done in any magazine. Mr. Tyrrel carries you graphically through the poet's life, and the pictures of the spots associated with his memory give all the reader can desire. Colonel Chaille Long, than whom none better able, tells of "The Khedive's Expedition to Zanzibar and the Jubu." "The Arch-duchess Ferdinand of Austria," is a charming sketch of a woman, lovely in face and character, who won her way into a royal family. "Marselles," and its attractions fills a pleasant set of pages and in the days when swimming is enjoyable we can read, if we cannot imitate, "A Veritable Merman, Some Adventures of Captain Paul Boyton," when the bell rings for dinner our readers may not stop to peruse Robert Wilson's article on "Hunger," but proceed to suppress the sensation. It may be read perhaps, after dinner with more comfort, and you may puzzle yourself to find out just exactly what hunger is. The articles are all well illustrated, and the stories, six in number, are very clever and worth reading. The whole number is most attractive in matter and picturesque effect.

The Effects of Mental Exhaustion.
Many diseases, especially those of the nervous system, are the products of daily renewed mental exhaustion. Business avocations often involve an amount of mental wear and tear, and lead to physical debility, and the professions, if not properly pursued, are no less destructive to brain and nerve. It is one of the most important attributes of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, that it compensates for this undue loss of tissue, and that it imparts new energy to the brain and nerves. The regular use of this invigorating mental energy and physical vitality is remarkable, and shows that its invigorating properties are of the highest order. Besides increasing vital stamina, and counteracting the effects of mental exhaustion, this potent medicine cures and prevents fever and ague, rheumatism, chronic dyspepsia and constipation, kidney and urinary weakness and other complicated ailments, and is recommended as a medicinal stimulant and remedy.
